10. clé now offers Zellige, a collection of tile handmade in Morocco. Curated by Deborah Osburn, the traditional zellige tiles are made from terracotta and hand painted in glazes in 21 colors. Zelliges are noted for their natural mineral glazes in luminescent colors and irregular shade variations. The undulating surface of the tile contains imperfections that are the distinguishing characteristics of the tile.

11. Oceanside Glasstile has expanded its Devotion color palette with three more art glass tiles, including Random Linear (shown). The natural variation of the art glass of Random Linear provides a look full of movement. All of Devotion's eight water jet and five hand cut mosaic patterns can be found in the company's 'Custom Mosaic' design tool on its website.
