

hospitality design

July 2015 hospitalitydesign.com

+

game changers

the people issue

HDexpo
hospitality design

products spa

By Alissa Ponchione

1
Japan Line from Porcelanosa is a ceramic covering that simulates the serenity of typical Japanese-style wallcovering. The collection comes in four colors: Natural, Marine, Blanco (pictured), and Brown.
PORCELANOSA-USA.COM

1
Japan Line from Porcelanosa is a ceramic covering that simulates the serenity of typical Japanese-style wallcovering. The collection comes in four colors: Natural, Marine, Blanco (pictured), and Brown.
PORCELANOSA-USA.COM

2
The Charles sofa from B&B Italia, designed by Antonio Citterio, is introduced in a new outdoor version. With a slim frame, flexibility, and its signature inverted L-shaped aluminum feet, the lightweight piece expands from a small armchair to a reclining cot with fabrics that have been treated with water-repellent techniques.
BEBITALLIA.COM

3
Designed by Enzo Bertt, the Via a Via from Kreco is a refined chair that rests on two brackets hooked to a central marble counterbalance. Available in single and double seats, the lounge chair is realized in steel and covered with natural handwoven wicker.
BEBECO.COM

4
With expanded seating for two, the Estate-size teak shower bench from Frontgate Contract includes a wide storage shelf beneath the seat. The kiln-dried, sustainably harvested, Grade-A teak is enhanced with corrosion-resistant, heavy-gauge, stainless steel accents.
FRONTGATE.COM