1. The Anoa Collection from THG blends natural horn with metal to create an inviting, contemporary design. The clear horn takes on a warm, buttery hue while the black is reminiscent of translucent dark satin. The pure material also features a multitude of color variations, making each faucet one-of-a-kind.

2. Created by Fabrizio Batoni for Brandoni, Monolite combines the radiator to the taps and the showerhead in a single product. Monolite integrates the showerhead in steel and faucets, creating a minimal line adaptable to different types of bathrooms, and can be installed in pre-existing environments.

3. Urban from Porcelanosa is a free-standing vitreous china one piece toilet with a soft-close thermoduric seat and the ecological commitment granted by the WaterSense certification. The soft close seat and cover also feature stainless steel hinges and a dual flush push button to enhance the user's comfort.

4. Designed by Roberto Lazzeroni, this free-standing bathtub from the ILBANGO Collection for ANTONIO LUPI has beautiful, flowing lines that are inspired by easily recognizable, popular retro styles. From furniture to accessories, this collection reinterprets classic forms and design with elegant, soft lines.

5. From Pfister, the Contempra Widespread Bath Faucet brings sleek and sophisticated style into the bathroom. Incorporating clean contemporary lines for a modern presence, this faucet also has a flow rate of 1.5 GPM and a water pressure of 60 PSI.

6. From British brassware manufacturer Samuel Heath, Luxe is a collection of individually cut glass controls in two shapes—a faceted barrel-shaped level and a flat roundel (shown here). Both designs showcase straight lines, rectilinear forms, and a geometric shape, and the finished controls are hand polished.

7. Breaking the rules of ordinary geometry, Fractal from Sonia Bathroom Furniture has a 360-degree asymmetrical design that visually creates a different piece of furniture, depending on your perspective to give your bathroom a whole new point of view.

8. Xylem's new Sherry Bath Vanity exudes European contemporary style in a streamlined, compact design that features a distinctive, high-gloss elmwood grain. The sleek new wall-mounted vanity makes optimal use of storage space without compromising its minimalist appeal.
